

England, Wales and Scotland with Abby Bonell

September 26 – October 5, 2019

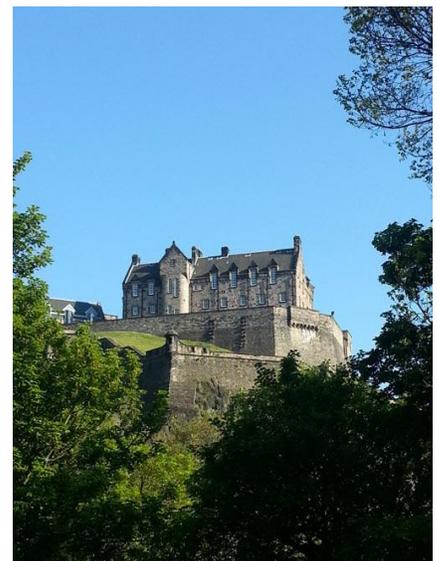

Note from Abby:

What a pleasure to be able to take you home to Britain with me! It's something I have secretly wanted to do for a very long time. This trip has been carefully handpicked by my dear friends at Columbus Travel. They are the best in the travel business! You will get to see parts of England rarely visited by tourists including the 12th century village where my family still lives today in the rolling Cheshire countryside. It is simply charming. I invite you to join me on a vacation of a lifetime as we marvel over the Crown Jewels, walk medieval streets from Oxford to Edinburgh, gaze upon magnificent castles and view landscapes that will remain etched in your memory for a lifetime.

Tour includes:

- Three-nights in London
- The highlights in London including admission to the Tower of London, a Thames River cruise, Westminster Abbey and more
- Visit to the great University of Oxford, home of Harry Potter and Alice in Wonderland
- Chester, one of England's' best-preserved medieval cities
- Visit Wales and ride the Snowdon Mountain Railway, see Llandudno pier lined with shops, cafes, bars and attractions and the cliffs of Great Orme.
- Visit to Abby's home town to meet her friends and family and experience England away from the big cities and tourist spots
- The Lake Country – rivalling Switzerland in beauty
- Edinburgh with its castle as well as the historic Royal Mile
- A day in Scotland's Highlands including Glamis Castle, reputedly the most beautiful castle in Scotland
- Meals: Breakfast daily, arrival dinner, lunch with Abby's friends in Audlem and farewell dinner
- Professional tour director and local sightseeing guides
- Admission to sites of interest as described below
- Hosted by Abby Bonell

Itinerary:

Thursday, September 26: Salt Lake City to London

Today, fly from Salt Lake City to London.

Friday, September 27: Arrive London

Arrive London mid-afternoon where we will be met by our local sightseeing guide and transfer to our hotel. This evening we will have a get acquainted dinner.

Saturday, September 28: London Highlights

London is one of the world's great cities. Today you'll enjoy a private tour of London including visits to Westminster Abbey, St. Paul's Cathedral, the restored Globe Theatre and the Tower of London with a visit to the Crown Jewels and a cruise on the River Thames.

Sunday, September 29: Free Day in London

Today is yours to explore London. Perhaps some shopping at Harrods, extra time in one of London's many museums or many other things that are available to enjoy today. Abby will be happy to suggest some of her favourite things to do and see. You may want to take in a West End theatre production this evening.

Monday, September 30: London to Oxford, Stratford Upon Avon and Chester

This morning we will transfer to Oxford for a visit to this famous university. You will recognize some of the scenes from Harry Potter that were filmed here. Lewis Carroll wrote Alice in Wonderland here and there are some interesting connections to his stories on campus. We will then travel Stratford-upon-Avon, home to William Shakespeare for a walking tour of the highlights of the city. Then on to Chester, one of England's loveliest cities. Founded by the Romans over 2,000 years ago, Chester's city walls are the most complete in Britain.

Tuesday, October 1: Wales

Today you'll visit Wales. First stop is Snowdon. At an elevation of nearly 6,000 feet above sea level, it is the highest point in the British Isles outside of the Scottish Highlands. You'll ride to its summit on the Snowdon Mountain Railway, described as one of the most unique and wonderful railway journeys in the world. At its summit you'll have time for views and to purchase lunch. Then to the town of Llandudno. It is known for its 2,295-foot pier dating from the late 1800s. It is lined with an array of shops, cafes, bars and attractions. After a short time for shopping then to the cliffs of Great Orme, a limestone headland that juts dramatically into the sea. Return to Chester for the evening.

Wednesday, October 2: Chester to Abby's home village of Audlem then to Edinburgh

Today Abby hosts you in the village where she grew up and where her family still lives. In Audlem you'll have a chance to learn about life as it is in England's towns and villages away from the big cities and busy tourist spots. You will get to know some of Abby's friends and family. Lunch is included in her good friend's pub and then you will have time for shopping in some of her favourite shops. After time in Audlem we'll drive through the scenic Lake District. The landscape of the Lake District is as breathtaking as any you will find in Switzerland or the French Alps. We then cross into Scotland and continue to Edinburgh.

Thursday, October 3: Edinburgh Highlights

Scotland is filled with romance and legend. Edinburgh is a mix of Georgian crescents and steeped medieval tenements guarded by its spectacular castle which overlooks the city. This morning you will have a private tour of Edinburgh. The capital of Scotland since the 15th century, Edinburgh stands on seven hills creating a dramatic skyline. The tour highlights include visits to Edinburgh Castle and Palace of Holyrood House, the official residence of the British monarch in Scotland, as well as the historic Royal Mile.

Friday, October 4: Edinburgh and Scottish Highlands

Today you will get a glimpse of some of the Scottish Highlands. First stop is at St. Andrews for a glimpse of the famous course where golf was invented. Then to Glamis Castle, reputedly the most beautiful castle in Scotland. It is a living, breathing monument to Scottish heritage. Glamis Castle is the legendary setting for Shakespeare's Macbeth, the childhood home of HM Queen Elizabeth, the Queen Mother, and the birthplace of Princess Margaret. Every painting, every piece of furniture, every little detail along the way is a sharp reminder that this is not a museum, but an incredible family home. We will also stop at Queen's View in Perth. This famous vantage point looks out over one of the most iconic panoramas in Scotland. This evening we will have a farewell dinner.

Saturday, October 5: Return to U.S. or Join Ireland Tour

This morning we will transfer to the airport for your return flights home. Or, if you wish, you can join Mark Faldmo's annual tour to Ireland. You will fly from Edinburgh to Dublin to meet this tour. Ask your Columbus agent for details.
