The Empire of the Incas

June 17 – July 2, 2020

This is a unique tour. Frankly, there is nothing like it offered in the State of Utah. In addition to visits to expected sites, such as Cuzco and Machu Picchu, your tour will take you off-the-beaten track for a full immersion in the world of the Inca Empire, as well as the coastal civilizations of the Nasca and Paracas culture. We visit historic and cultural sites, temples and native Indian markets that see few outsiders. We visit UNESCO World heritage sites; we navigate one of the tributaries of the Amazon. Stay in a jungle lodge nestled deep in the Tambopata - Candamo Biosphere Reserve where over 1,000 species of birds, 300 species of trees, endangered animal and plant species could be found. Manu and Candamo are the largest protected area in Peru, with endless tropical forests, rainforest, cloud forests, and rivers brimming with life; all of these make the Peruvian rain forest a “Living Garden of Eden”.

No journey to the empire of the Incas would be complete without a visit to Cuzco and Machu Picchu. Cuzco, perched high in the Andes Mountains and a UNESCO World heritage site, was once the capital of the Inca Empire. Cuzco still retains its indigenous and colonial heritage and architecture. Machu Picchu has been declared by UNESCO one of the wonders of the world. New restrictions made by UNESCO and the government of Peru makes it now more restricted in visiting the citadel. The extra night in Machu Picchu, allows our group time to climb the Wayna Picchu peak, or hike to the Gate of the Sun. This has never been offered before in our tours. Reservations to hike to the top of the Wayna Picchu must be made well in advance.

This is no ordinary tour. This is an adventure for travelers who want to see, feel, and experience the Inca nation, its people and heritage. While staying in first class comfort and accommodations, you will journey in what can only be described as daily National Geographic type experiences with expert bilingual guides and most meals included. This is a life changing experience that does not often come our way. Please join Carlos on this amazing trip!

Our Host Carlos Fida: I am a native of Argentina where I held teaching positions at the University of Patagonia and at the Military Academy. I have lectured for university groups on the rich history of pre-Colombian and modern Latin American history.

I immigrated to the United States, and after working for five years in the travel industry, I earned my Certified Travel Agent degree in 1985. Since then, I have devoted 41 years of my life as a highly qualified specialist in Latin American travel.
Itinerary:

June 17: Los Angeles - Lima
We depart Los Angeles at 9:30 PM on LATAM Airlines.

June 18: Lima
Arrive in Lima, Peru at 7:50 A.M. Transfer to our hotel Innside Lima by Melia Miraflores. This afternoon we set out to discover the exciting sites and history of Lima, Peru’s capital city. We see Plaza de Armas, the core and center of the city, surrounded by the Government Palace, the City Hall, and the Metropolitan Cathedral where the tomb of Conquistador Pizarro is found as well as the archbishop of Lima palace, with its ornate porticos and balconies. Also included is a tour of the San Francisco convent and its catacombs. There is a large painting of the Last Supper, with Christ and the apostles sitting around a round table. Very non-traditional in its depiction and arrangement. To enhance this tour, this year we have added a visit to the Larco Museum, one of the best archaeological and historical museums in South America, where there are exhibited artifacts, pottery and textiles covering 4,000 years of the history of this Andean nation. Lodging at Innside by Melia Lima Miraflores. (B)

June 19: Lima - Paracas
Today we drive along the Pan American highway to Paracas. Paracas is situated on the Pacific Ocean coast. We drive through fertile valleys with orchards, cotton fields and avocado plantations and pass small villages through the never ending coastal desert. We lodge in a beautiful hotel by the seaside. We offer an optional flight over the Nazca Lines. The lines are huge etchings on the desert floor, depicting a humming bird, a condor, spider and a whale, plus other animals of tremendous proportions. After much research and many theories, we still do not know how these markings where etched on the desert floor. They can be seen only from the air, the reason why we fly for 45 minutes to explore these mysterious markings in over 200 square miles of desert. Lodging La Hacienda Bahia Paracas. (B)

June 20: Paracas - Ica
During the morning, a short drive from Paracas takes us to Ica, a desert town surrounded by orchards and vineyards. We visit the small city and enter the only oasis in South America, the Huacachina Oasis. In the early 1920’s houses and a hotel were built around the oasis. The oasis is hidden amidst towering sand dunes. After lunch return to Paracas and our hotel. Included in the tour is a visit to the Regional Archaeological Museum of Ica where mummies, pottery of the Nazca period, and rich and colorful textile weaving by the Paracas civilizations are exhibited. (B.L)

June 21: Paracas
Early in the morning we navigate in a speed boat to the Ballestas Islands, also called “the Little Galapagos” for their myriad of birds and sea animals which make their home in the desolate islands rising from the Pacific Ocean. This is a scene out of the movie “The Lost World.” Pelicans, penguins, seals and sea lions nest on the craggy rocks of several island. Approaching the islands, etched on the sands of the millenary desert is the Candelabra, or the Tree of Life. By the fishing port of the small village you will see restaurants where fresh sea food is prepared in a most delicious way. Afternoon drive back to Lima and check in at our hotel by the seaside. (B)

June 22: Lima - Puerto Maldonado - Lake Sandoval Lodge
This morning we transfer to the Lima Airport for a short flight to Puerto Maldonado, gateway to the Amazon and Candamo Biosphere. Puerto Maldonado is the rainforest capital of Peru. We travel by boat down the Madre de Dios River to the Sandoval Lake Lodge; a rustic but comfortable jungle lodge in the primeval forest. The diversity of wildlife is due to its location at the confluence of the lowland Amazon forest and three other ecosystems. Rowing on Lake Sandoval will transport us into a pristine forest surrounded by palm trees. After dinner we enjoy a night walk with local native guides to observe some of the animals that inhabit the jungle. Overnight in the Amazon jungle at Sandoval Lake Lodge. This really is right out of National Geographic! (B, BXL, D)

June 23: Lake Sandoval Lodge
Our excursion today takes us to Lake Sandoval where we board our boat and explore the area for wildlife in the water, on land, in the trees, and in the sky; including the elusive Hoatzin, a rare tropical bird found in the mangroves, waters and forests in the Amazon. We also go spotting for caimans, macaws and other endemic species that inhabit the Amazon rainforest. Overnight in our Amazon jungle lodge. Talk about spectacular sunsets! (B, L, D)

June 24: Lake Sandoval Lodge
There is no other lake as beautiful as Lake Sandoval in the whole region. To see the sunset over the tall palm trees and the reflection on the waters of the calm lake is an unforgettable experience. Our daily navigation on Lake Sandoval offers the opportunity to see the playful giant otters swimming and fishing and feeding their little ones. This is another spectacular day! (B, L, D)

June 25: Puerto Maldonado - Cuzco
We bid farewell to the Amazon basin, its flora and fauna. We walk the two miles under a canopy of trees on a board walk, reach the pier and navigate the Tambopata River, returning to Puerto Maldonado. Transfer to the airport for our 40 minute flight to Cuzco. Upon arrival check-in at Los Portales Hotel. Remainder of the day at leisure to explore downtown Cuzco on your own, or to do some shopping in the thousands of shops that line the cobblestone street of the former capital of the Inca Empire. (B)

June 26: Cuzco – Sacred Valley of the Incas.
Our visit to the “Sacred Valley”, will connect us to the glorious past of the Ollantaytambo fortress, an area packed with Inca sites, colonial towns, and isolated villages. Ollantaytambo, a former Inca administrative center and gateway to the Antisuyo (the Amazon corner of the Inca Empire), sits at the northern end of the Sacred Valley. At the time of the Spanish invasion and conquest of Peru, Ollantaytambo served as the last stronghold for the Inca resistance against the conqueror. We continue to the native market of Pisaq where you can purchase textiles, silver jewelry, articles made of Alpaca wool and many other interesting gifts to bring home. Overnight at Sonesta Yucay Hotel, a former convent turned into a hotel. (B,L)
June 27: Sacred Valley – Machu Picchu.
Today we experience the highlight of any journey to Peru: Machu Picchu, the Lost Citadel of the Incas. We take the morning train to Machu Picchu Pueblo, a charming village at the base of the Machu Picchu Mountain. Buses are waiting to take us to the citadel, which stands perched high atop the Andes Mountains. An expert guide will introduce us to the history of the city and its mysterious abandonment. Overnight at Casa Andina Hotel. (B)

June 28: Machu Picchu - Cuzco
This morning we re-enter the citadel of the Incas to do some further exploration and sightsee the ancient complex built by the Incas. Weather permitting we may see the sunrise over the Vilcabamba range and the citadel. Those who have signed up to hike the Wayna Picchu will rise early in the morning to escalate this iconic peak that serves as the backdrop to the Lost Citadel of the Incas. Lunch at El Indio Feliz Restaurant. (B,L)

June 29: Cuzco
Today we explore the former capital of the Inca Empire. The Qoricancha or Temple of the Sun is the place where the Incas congregated to worship the Sun, their god. The early chronicles tell us that the walls of the Temple were covered with gold. The gardens and courtyards contained magnificent reproductions of animals made of solid gold. Outside of the city is the colossal structure of the Fortress of Sacsayhuaman. The Incas shaped enormous stones and fitted them together with incredible precision. We will walk where the Incas walked, and admire their talent in building majestic buildings still intact, except for the destruction caused by the Spanish Conquistadors. The 17th Century Cathedral is not just another cathedral, but a monument to faith and skilled labor. The walls are covered with artwork of the 16th and 17th century of the Cuzco School of Painting. Altars made in gold and silver adorn the largest cathedral in the city of Cuzco. There is so much history and you will learn about the syncretism of two religions; Christian and pagan. (B)

June 30: Cuzco – Lima
Late afternoon flight to Lima. Transfer to the Innside Lima Hotel, located in the beautiful district of Miraflores. (B)

July 01: Lima
This afternoon, Carlos will take you on a short walking tour of Miraflores. (B)

July 02: Lima to Los Angeles
Depart from Lima at 1:50 AM and arrive in Los Angeles at 8:45 AM to connect to our final destination.
