A RETURN TO THE GOLDEN AGE OF CRUISING!

In today's hurried pace, our 11-day cruise adventure is a throwback to a bygone era before mass air travel when people boarded mighty ocean liners to travel “overseas” to distant and exciting ports-of-call, foreign lands, tropical islands, and new adventures — the “Golden Age of Cruising.” We depart from Vancouver, British Columbia, Canada, sail through the San Juan Islands, spend a day in Seattle and then turn south into the vast reaches of the Pacific Ocean with five leisurely days at sea following centuries old routes of tall sail clipper ships. Be on the lookout for whales as we are sailing during the annual whale migratory season. We visit Kona on the Big Island, Maui, and Oahu. This is a one-time and one-time only cruise aboard the Ovation of the Seas. This is unlike any cruise or travel adventure you have experienced and can never be repeated. You may wish to extend your stay in Hawaii for a few days or many days after the cruise disembarks in Honolulu. Blue ocean waters, white sand beaches, gentle trade winds, and the “Spirit of Aloha” all combine to make this a travel adventure unlike any other trip you have taken to Hawaii. Truly, a trip never to be forgotten!

In the South Seas

“Few men who come to the islands leave them; they grow grey where they alighted; the palm shades and the trade-wind fans them till they die, perhaps cherishing to the last the fancy of a visit home, which is rarely made, more rarely enjoyed. No part of the world exerts the same attractive power upon the visitor. The first experience can never be repeated. The first love, the first sunrise, the first South Sea island, are memories apart and touched a virginity of sense.”

Robert Louis Stevenson
